Cancer support on your doorstep
We’re here for you

Cancer is the toughest fight most of us will ever face. But you don’t have to go through it alone. The Macmillan team is in your corner. We are the nurses helping you through treatment. The experts on the end of the phone who can answer your questions. The advisers telling you which benefits you’re entitled to.

We are Macmillan Cancer Support and we’ll be with you every step of the way.

High-quality information and support
Visit one of our many information and support centres in your area for clear information about cancer and face-to-face support. Our team of trained staff and volunteers are there to talk about your issues and concerns.

You’ll find details of the cancer information and support centres in the Northern Ireland area on pages 4 to 5.

Financial support
The costs of cancer can stack up, and money worries are the last thing you need when you’re facing the toughest fight of your life. But we can help with a wide range of financial issues. We can let you know how to apply for a Macmillan Grant. We can help you understand which benefits you’re entitled to. We can even offer you straightforward financial guidance over the phone on matters including pensions, mortgages, insurance and savings.

You’ll find details of financial support services in the Northern Ireland area on pages 7 to 10.
Local services

Cancer information and support centres

Services developed in partnership with Macmillan

Macmillan Support and Information Centre (Belfast Health and Social Care Trust)
Belfast City Hospital, 77–81 Lisburn Road, Belfast, Northern Ireland BT9 7AB 028 9069 9201
www.belfasttrust.hscni.net/cancer-specialistservices
Monday–Friday, 9am–4pm

We provide information and support to anyone affected by cancer. Our friendly staff and trained volunteers can guide you through our range of information and services. These include counselling, complementary therapies, benefits advice, wig fitting and a group activities programme. We also host lung cancer and myeloma support groups.

Macmillan Information and Support Service (Belfast Health and Social Care Trust)
Level 2, New Build Phase 1, Royal Victoria Hospital, Grosvenor Road, Belfast, Northern Ireland BT12 6BA
028 9063 0022
www.belfasttrust.hscni.net/cancer-specialistservices
Monday, Tuesday and Thursday 10am–12.30pm, Wednesday 1pm–4pm

If you’re affected by cancer, we can help. We offer high quality information and support to help you understand and manage your condition, signposting to other services, access to benefits and financial advice by specialist advisers and a confidential listening ear in a calm and relaxing environment.

Macmillan Information and Support Service (South Eastern Health and Social Care Trust)
Macmillan Information Centre, Ulster Hospital, Upper Newtownards Road, Dundonald, Belfast, Northern Ireland BT16 1RH
028 9055 3246
Tuesday 2pm–4.00pm, Wednesday 9.30am–12noon, Thursday 2pm–4pm

If you’re affected by cancer, we can help. We offer high quality information and support to help you understand and manage your condition, signposting to other services, access to benefits and financial advice by specialist advisers and a confidential listening ear in a calm and relaxing environment.
The Macmillan Welfare Rights Service provides information and advice about welfare benefits and other financial entitlement to help people cope with the cost of living with cancer. The service not only aims to maximise income through benefits uptake and other financial help, but also assist in accessing other services available. This service is available to people affected by cancer who live in the Belfast Health and Social Care Trust area, including those attending the Northern Ireland wide Regional Cancer Centre at Belfast City & Royal group of Hospitals.

Financial Support Services

Macmillan CAB Welfare Rights Service (Belfast Health and Social Care Trust)
Belfast City Hospital,
Macmillan Support and Information Centre, 77–81 Lisburn Road,
Belfast, Northern Ireland BT9 7AH

028 9069 9307
Monday–Friday, 9.30am–4pm

Mater Hospital
Fairview 2, Crumlin Road, Belfast,
Northern Ireland BT14 6AB

028 9026 8400
Monday–Friday, 8.30am–4.30pm

Royal Group of Hospitals
Level 2, Bostock House,
Royal Hospitals, Grosvenor Road, Belfast, Northern Ireland BT12 6BA

028 9026 8400
Monday–Friday, 8.30am–4.30pm
Macmillan Welfare Rights Service (Western Health and Social Care Trust)
Office 2, Sperrin Suite, Southwing, Altnagelvin Hospital, Glenshane Rd, Londonderry, Northern Ireland BT47 6SB
028 7134 5171 extension 216232
Monday–Friday, 9am–5pm
The Macmillan Welfare Rights Service provides information and advice about welfare benefits and other financial entitlement to help people cope with the cost of living with cancer. The service not only aims to maximise income through benefits uptake and other financial help, but also assist in accessing other services available. The service is available to people affected by cancer who live in the WHSC Trust area or are receiving treatment at Altnagelvin Hospital.

Macmillan CAB Welfare Rights Service (South Eastern Health and Social Care Trust)
Macmillan Information and Support Centre, Breast and Endocrine Unit, Ulster Hospital, Dundonald, Northern Ireland BT16 1RH
028 9055 3254
Monday–Friday, 9.30am–4.30pm
The Macmillan Welfare Rights Service provides information and advice about welfare benefits and other financial entitlement to help people cope with the cost of living with cancer. The service not only aims to maximise income through benefits uptake and other financial help, but also assist in accessing other services available. The service is available to people affected by cancer who live in the SEHSC Trust area or are receiving treatment at the Ulster Hospital.

Macmillan CAB Welfare Rights Service (Northern Health and Social Care Trust)
C/o Antrim District Citizens Advice Bureau, Farranshane House, 1 Ballygore Road, Antrim, Northern Ireland BT41 2RN
028 9446 9944 or 07895287302
Monday–Friday, 9am–5pm
The Macmillan Welfare Rights Service provides information and advice about welfare benefits and other financial entitlement to help people cope with the cost of living with cancer. The service not only aims to maximise income through benefits uptake and other financial help, but also assist in accessing other services available. The service is available to people affected by cancer who live in the NHSC Trust area or are receiving treatment at Antrim Area Hospital.

Macmillan CAB Welfare Rights Service (Southern Health and Social Care Trust)
C/o Citizens Advice Bureau, Town Hall, 6 Union Street, Lurgan, Co Armagh, Northern Ireland BT66 8DY
07518020536 or 028 3831 7066
Monday–Friday, 9am–5pm
The Macmillan Welfare Rights Service provides information and advice about welfare benefits and other financial entitlement to help people cope with the cost of living with cancer. The service not only aims to maximise income through benefits uptake and other financial help, but also assist in accessing other services available. The service is available to people affected by cancer who live in the SHSC Trust area or are receiving treatment at Craigavon Hospital.
Other cancer information and support services

A full list of other cancer support services is available on the Northern Ireland Cancer Network website www.cancerni.net/services

Support on the high street

For more information about sources of cancer support, pop into your local Boots store or to find your nearest Boots visit boots.com.

Someone to talk to

You don’t have to go through cancer alone. Whether you want support and information or you’d just like to talk, our team of cancer support specialists at the Macmillan Support Line are only a phone call away. From answering questions about cancer types and treatments to helping you find out what benefits you’re entitled to, they’re here to talk about whatever’s on your mind. Call them on 0808 808 00 00 any time from Monday to Friday, 9am–8pm. It’s free, even from mobile phones.

What’s more, our website is packed with high-quality cancer information that covers everything from symptoms and screening to treatment types and sources of health. All information is written and reviewed by specialists. We’ve also worked closely with people affected by cancer to develop our booklets, online courses and face-to-face training. To find out more, head to macmillan.org.uk or call 0808 808 00 00.

You can also access our online community. It’s a place where thousands of people affected by cancer go to share their stories and get vital support. Five minutes after logging on, you can be chatting to someone who’s going through the same things as you. Visit us at community.macmillan.org.uk
We’re here for everyone affected by cancer, whatever you need. For support every step of the way, call the Macmillan Support Line free on 0808 808 00 00.

And, when the time is right, you can join our team. Whether you hold a coffee morning, make a donation or help us campaign for change, you can make a vital difference. Call us today on 0300 1000 200, and help make sure millions of people don’t face cancer alone.